

WEEKLY ROUNDABOUT.

There will be no preaching at the Christian Church to-morrow, but at 10½ o'clock, a. m., the members of that congregation will meet and have their usual communion services.

The ladder on which Mr. Charles Featherston was standing, trimming trees in the State House yard Wednesday afternoon, fell and came near landing him on the top of the iron fence, but he succeeded in catching the limb of a tree and letting himself down.

A petition of numerous citizens of "Craw" was presented to the Council in April, asking for street lamps on the corner of Wilkerson and Clinton streets; Wilkerson, Broadway, and Blanton streets, which was granted and the work ordered to be done in April last. The people still are left in darkness, and wish to know why it is thus. Twenty-seven names out of the forty-three on the petition represent $54,810 worth of taxable property and they think their petition is entitled to some consideration. Will the member of the Council from that part of the city see that his constituents' interests are looked after?

A Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the Pleasant Hill Sunday-school, June 27th, Jno. A. Bell was called to the chair and S. N. Hodges appointed secretary. On motion Mrs. Mollie Church, S. N. Hodges and Henry T. Settles were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the great loss they had sustained in the death of their beloved teacher and co-laborer in the Sunday-school, Miss Belle Jackson. The following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an all-wise all-merciful and omnipotent God, by whose goodness, whose mercy and whose love we are permitted to meet at this place every Sabbath morning to worship, Sister Belle Jackson has been removed from our midst; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Sister Belle Jackson this school has lost one of its most earnest, competent, and zealous teachers and advocates, and one of its most devoted, constant, and assiduous communicants; and the community one of its most popular, petted and devoted members.

Resolved, That in the death of Sister Belle Jackson her family has sustained an irreparable loss, for she was indeed a kind, cheerful, and loving daughter, who shrank from no duty which could add to their temporal or spiritual welfare, and whose every act and deed glittered with unselfish love and pure and intense interest for her parents and brothers. She, being the only daughter, seemed especially imbued with the responsibilities and privileges of her position, and by her modest deportment, christian conduct, and spiritual zeal secured in a manner, not common in one so young, the blind devotion of her immediate family, and the love, respect, and confidence of the whole community.

Resolved, That we condole with her family in this their severe and arduous trial, and remind them that their loss is her eternal gain, and that her unexpected death should warn them, as us, to heed the scriptural injunction, "Be ye also ready."

Resolved, That out of respect for the beloved dead we will wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days, and that her seat be draped in mourning.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the record of this school; that the secretary furnish a copy to the family of the deceased, and that the same be published in the ROUNDABOUT.

Dr. C. H. Jones has returned to his home in Columbus, Ga., after a visit of several days to his cousin, W. H. Jones, sr., whom he had not seen for 46 years.

Notwithstanding so much spoilt wheat and clover, many sad hearts were made happy this week by the return of Misses Hallie and Emma Cox from a visit to relatives near Versailles. The blue-grass boys have our sympathy.

Thorn Grove is in a flourishing condition. We have a good day school, Sunday-school, and preaching every third Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. M. Lewis, of Frankfort, who has endeared himself to the people here by his zeal and interest in their behalf.

THORN.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with ruddy and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.
